

CRO are proud to have operated in partnership with the Forum of Private Business (FPB) for some years. The FPB is a not-for-profit national business support membership organisation established since 1977 with a membership numbering in the thousands of businesses across all sectors. Your membership will entitle you to a vast range of business support services, access to business helplines and cost saving packages.

Support and protection

- Comprehensive legal protection insurance offers tailored cover and support for you and your business, backed by a 24/7 expert legal advice helpline.
- Peace of mind that you are equipped to deal with the ever-changing rules, procedures and legislation affecting your business, leaving you to get on with what you do best.
- Unlimited support from an expert, in-house business helpline, on hand to provide practical business guidance, employment law, health and safety, marketing and business development advice.
- Advice and legal expense protection for tax investigations and disputes.

Giving your business a voice where it counts

- The FPB lobby and influence policy on your behalf, and take your views directly to the decision makers in Government.
- The FPB has the presence where it matters to make sure your voice is heard and they have been recognised as a voice for small businesses for almost 40 years.
- Sick pay changes and late payment policy changes are examples of recent successes in securing positive changes for small business owners.

Business savings

- The FPB can find the best deals on the market for your business across a range of essential services that could more than pay for the cost of your membership over a year.

Business growth

- Free downloadable guides and business resources; key topics include marketing, health and safety and credit control.
- Straightforward online marketing advice from our in-house experts on a range of subjects including PR, social media, SEO and direct marketing.
- Free support and advice to help you find the right type of finance.
